*Kiss Me goodbye,
My lips sigh to touch
Your soul, one last time.
Look at me when you
Leave your love
In the void of my lips.*

*Let me live our moments
Of eternity, let it not Pass with death.*

*Kiss Me goodbye,
I long to hold your breath,
In the softness of my soul.
Your deep kiss,
Your senseless rhythm,
Your irresistible loving eyes,
Your bold voice,
Let me consume it all.*

*Before I feel nothing,
Kiss Me goodbye. by Sufia Khatoon*

*Obituary

Sandra Mae Basped – Langston was born September 5, 1946, to her parent Mr. Raymond and Mrs. Sadie Johnson-Basped in Tucson, Arizona. Sandra has two sons, Senior Pastor Dr. Schezarone H. Carter, Ajalon Missionary Baptist Church, Palm Spring Ca and Vontallio L. Carter, IT Maintenance Engineer, Richmond Ca. Sandra and Dr. Louis Conway Langston married August 3, 1972 in San Francisco, California. The beloved couple was married for 49 years; they attended the Glad Tiding International Church of God In Christ, Hayward Ca., under the leadership of Senior Pastor Bishop Jerry W. Macklin.

Sandra was God's workmanship, a devoted and faithful wife, encouraging and loving mother, and a blessed great grandmother. She was created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared her for beforehand, that she should walk upright in His word; and she humbly did in praise, worship, teaching and living. Sandra was an anointed gospel singer and loved traditional black gospel and classic music.

Sandra just loved people and people loved her. She had a way of endearing herself to everyone she met. Sandra was known for her gracious hospitality, and many have been blessed by her gospel outreach ministry. Sandra loved to travel with her husband Louis and visited many places and countries throughout the world. Sandra was an accomplished interior designer and textile collector. Sandra was the inspiration that inspired Louis to succeed in many entrepreneurial endeavors. Samantha Carter was Sandra's favorite granddaughter and Sam loved her grandmother dearly and she received Sandra's hospitality and interior design mantle.

Sandra was preceded in death by her Mother Sadie Louise Basped and Father Raymond Basped, Brother Walter and Raymond Basped Jr. Sisters, Glenn (Honey) Session, Sister Molly M. Gordon, JoAnn Eloise Carey, Sister Dora Taylor, Niece Anna Marie Gordon and Nephews Walter, Regal and Michael Basped.

Sandra leaves to cherish her memories: her devoted and faithful husband of 49 years, Dr. Louis Conway Langston, two loving sons, Schezarone H. Carter, Son, Vontallio L. Carter; Grandchildren, Sabrina Carter, Schezarone Carter Jr. John Carter, Christina Carter Bridgett Carter, Samantha Carter; Toyna Basped and a host of other nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

Committal Prayer of Blessings

Senior Pastor Superintendent Dr. Joseph Eugene Langston, Langston Memorial COGIC, Antioch Ca.
First Lady Bertha Ann Langston

Heavenly Father,

We thank you this day for Jesus, for his precious gift of eternal life, and for the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

In the midst of our natural sorrow, we thank you for your supernatural grace.

In facing death, we thank you for the promise of life everlasting.

And in the face of separation, we thank you for the assurance of eternal reunion.

We thank you for Sandra's life here on this earth, and we recognize that the body before is not dead but is the house, the tabernacle, in which she lived.

We acknowledge that Sandra is with you now, rejoicing in your presence and enjoying the blessings of heaven.

So Father, we now commit the body of Sandra Mae Baspé – Langston to this earth, and we rejoice that her spirit is with you even now.

We look forward to that day, when we can all rejoice together, and we thank you that we are not without hope or comfort at this time.

We thank you for making your presence very real to Louis, her husband, and each family member, and that you will especially strengthen and sustain them in the days, weeks, and months to come.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

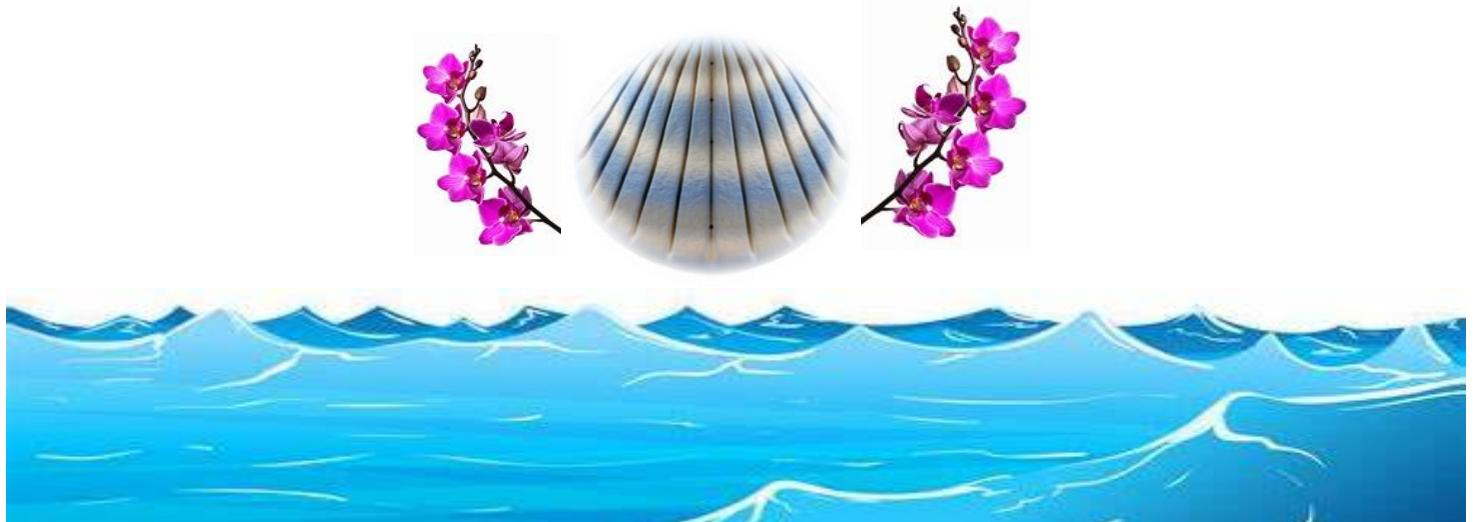

*Prayer at Sea

Louis Conway Langston, D.Hum
Charlotte Rose Brown - Langston
Tonua Basped - Wiley

Lord God, by the power of your word you stilled the chaos of the primeval seas; you made the raging waters of the flood subside and calmed the storm on the Sea of Galilee. As we commit the body of our wife and sister Sandra to the deep, grant her peace and tranquility...

*Into your hands, Father of mercies,
we commend sister Sandra,
in the sure and certain hope,
that, together with all who have died in Christ,
Sandra will rise with Him on the last day,
In Jesus Name, Amen.*
